Gifted Self-Contained Parent Support

Expectations of Self-Contained Parents:

- Support your child's academic program
- Maintain ongoing communication with the Self-Contained teacher
- Stay informed about gifted issues by attempting to attend parent meetings

Parent/Guardian Commitment

1. I understand that I will be expected to support my child, _____,
(child's name) by maintaining communication with the self-contained teacher and providing the time and resources necessary to complete classroom, homework, and project requirements.

2. I will accept (if my child qualifies) the Self-Contained class that my child has been assigned.

However, if my child is placed and I change my mind I have until June 18, 2019 to decline the placement and accept waitlist status. If my application is late or incomplete the Gifted and Talented Coordinator after May 28, 2019, will place the application at the bottom of the waitlist regardless of their application score.

Additional information about Self-Contained applications:

- All applications will be reviewed and evaluated using state approved ability and achievement test data.
- The areas of gifted identification according to Ohio Law are: Superior Cognitive, Creative Thinking, Reading, Math, Science and Social Studies. The Self-Contained Program draws from all academic areas of identification.
- Applications must be complete.
- Appeals: Please notify the Gifted and Talented Coordinator in writing outlining your concern by June 24, 2019. A committee will review the appeal and you will be notified in writing, within 15 days of receipt.

Thank you for applying for the Self-Contained Program.

Self-Contained Rubric for 2019-2020 Area of Giftedness Points

Area of Giftedness	Points
Superior Cognitive	8
Reading	4
Math	4
Science	1
Social Studies	1
Creative Thinking	1

The self-contained rubric will be used to score the student applications. In the event of a tie the greater score/percentile will determine the tie.
